NATIONAL NURSING CONFERENCE - 2016

Nursing services are an integral part of the clinical services of any health care organization. The Nursing professionals are the cornerstone of any quality related programme in the hospital since most of the delivery and monitoring of health care is carried out by them. Standards are pre requisite for the promotion of safe, effective, competent and ethical nursing care. They help the individual nursing practitioner to evaluate the services being provided by them and also act as a catalyst for self regulation and improvement.

Spearheading, the quality revolution in the Indian health care scenario, Apollo Hospitals embarked the journey of quality for delivering better clinical outcomes from bench-to-bedside innovation faceted by its expertise in offering personalized medical care. Apollo college of Nursing, a unit of Apollo Hospitals is in the forefront of assuring quality nursing education aims to empower nurses to gain professional edge.

This conference will strengthen nurses towards improvements in clinical outcomes, patient safety indices, compliance to systems and processes, new initiatives in clinical excellence and patient safety, progress in academics and new research initiatives.
